

iHost: Thanksgiving

Hosting your first Thanksgiving? Or just bogged down by the details?

Simplify the stress by using iHost: Thanksgiving, the first in a series of party planning apps designed to make your life simple.

Always have on hand the list of things you need; menu, guests, shopping list, dates and everything else.

iHost: Thanksgiving includes basic dinner recipes so you can quickly see the bottom line requirements of planning the traditional feast.

Experiment with more complex recipes by cutting and pasting them into the menu list. Cut and paste the ingredients into your shopping list.

More than one event? Use iHost: Thanksgiving for planning multiple parties.
